If the Client needs to cancel the event, Client must provide written notice to Caterer along with any required cancellation fee described in this Catering Contract, to effect cancellation.

Client understands that upon entering into this Contract, Caterer is committing time and resources to this Event and thus cancellation would result in lost income and lost business opportunities in an amount hard to precisely calculate. Therefore, the following cancellation limitations will apply.

Cancellation

If Client requests cancellation of this Contract 4-7 days or more before the Event,

Caterer shall be entitled to 50 percent of the Estimated Total Cost.

If Client requests cancellation 2-4 days before the Event, Caterer shall be entitled to 75 percent of the Estimated Total Costs.

After 1 day in advance of the Event, Caterer shall be entitled to 100 percent of the Estimated Total Cost.

The Client's deposit/advance/part payment, made on booking and menu finalization, will be credited against the cancellation fees owed. Any balance will be payable upon the notice of cancellation.
